SUMMARY: The U.S. Embassy in Kyiv announces the 2019 Book Translation Program. Subject to availability of funds, the Embassy will award small grants as described below to Ukrainian publishers seeking to translate American books from English into Ukrainian. The program seeks to further Ukraine's efforts in the spheres of economic, social, and educational reform through book translations and publications.

This funding will support the translation of texts written by American authors and originally published by American publishers pertaining to the themes listed below. Translated books are distributed to universities and schools, libraries, government organizations and ministries, NGOs, the media, and other selected organizations. The main criteria for selecting books are their relevance, timeliness, and quality.

Applications will be accepted and reviewed throughout the year on a rolling basis.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS:

Ukrainian non-profit and non-governmental publishers are eligible to apply.

Organizations Not Eligible to Apply:

Commercial publishers are not eligible, unless they have a non-profit division that qualifies as a separate non-profit organization under U.S. or Ukrainian law.

Third-country publishers are not eligible.

ELIGIBLE PROJECT THEMES

The goal of the Book Translation Program is to leverage U.S. expertise, knowledge, and experience, as reflected in American literature, to assist Ukraine in its implementation of economic, social, and educational reforms. Regarding works of fiction, priority will be given to books whose themes highlight similarities and connections between U.S. and Ukrainian society or are otherwise relevant to contemporary Ukrainian reality.

Eligible themes include:

- Civil society development
- Strengthening rule of law
- Combatting corruption
- Human rights
- Women's empowerment
- Entrepreneurship and economic development
- Counterterrorism and cybersecurity
- Elections and political processes
- U.S.-Ukrainian relations
- Conflict resolution
- Social cohesion and integration, including issues relevant to refugees and internally displaced persons (IDPs)
- Post-traumatic stress disorder and trauma
- Academic integrity
- Educational psychology
- Young adult and children's literature (fiction and nonfiction), including comics and graphic novels)

FUNDING LEVELS AND ALLOWABLE EXPENSES

Subject to availability of funds, publishers may apply for grants up to $8,000. Allowable costs are those directly related to the project activities: copyright, pre-publication including translation, printing, and public events. Proposals for public events may include promotional programs, such as book launch ceremonies and speaking engagements with the author (both in person and through video conferences). Allowable costs include travel and accommodation of book authors, advertising associated with a book launch, and costs associated with promoting the translated books at Ukrainian book festivals. We welcome creative programming ideas that will bring the translated books to the attention of target audiences in Ukraine.

Important notes:

- The program encourages organizations to provide in-kind contributions and/or coordinate funding with other donors.

- We cannot pay for the food and beverages at public outreach events. Those costs are excluded from our awards.
- Costs incurred before the official grant period begins (pre-award costs) will not be reimbursed.

Ukrainian entities registering in SAM must NOT submit a notarized letter appointing their authorized Entity Administrator!

Please note that process of registration on the SAM.gov portal can take substantial amount of time, so we recommend starting the process as early as possible.

Dun &Bradstreet DUNS - A DUNS number may be acquired at no cost by calling the dedicated toll-free DUNS number request line at 1-866-705-5711 or requesting on-line at www.dnb.com.

The DUNS number is a nine-digit number established and assigned by Dun and Bradstreet, Inc. (D&B) to uniquely identify business entities. All organizations applying for U.S. Government grant funds must have a DUNS number. To obtain a DUNS number, please follow the steps below:

1. Go to <http://fedgov.dnb.com/webform/pages/CCRSearch.jsp>.
2. Select the country where your organization is physically located. Complete and submit the form. Organizations will need to provide basic information, including physical and mailing addresses, name and title of the chief executive, primary Standard Industrial Code (SIC), and annual revenue. Typically, organizations can complete this process in one day and have a DUNS number emailed to them. For technical difficulties in obtaining this number, please contact D&B at: govt@dnb.com.

System for Award Management (SAM) - SAM is a U.S.-government wide registry of vendors doing business with the U.S. federal government and requires annual renewal. The system centralizes information about grant applicants/recipients, and provides a central location for grant applicants/recipients to change organizational information. More information about SAM.gov and useful guides for setting-up a new account, updating an existing account, or renewing an expired account can be found at: <https://www.statebuy.state.gov/fa/Pages/SAMInfo.aspx>

Foreign-based applicants are strongly encouraged to review these guides when creating an account with SAM.gov. Further, applicants must maintain an active account, with current information, while its application is under consideration for funding. To keep an active SAM.gov account, Applicants must renew it at least once each year. If an account expires, the Organization cannot submit a grant application until it is renewed.

Only individuals who are authorized to represent a particular entity, or individuals representing themselves as an entity, may register an entity in SAM.
